

Hi Church,

Devotional Thought:

Here is a verse to ponder on for today: "Let us make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification." (Romans 14:19) Personally, I don't like where our government seems to be going with more freedoms for the vaccinated than those who aren't. I think it has the potential to divide communities, families and churches. However, we can choose to let the love we have for each other be greater than our differences on issues like this. Let us be seekers of peace, not division.

Focus on Mission:

What an inspirational as well as practical series this has been. We pray you are being challenged and encouraged by this series, whether you are joining us in person or online.

Like other weeks, please pre-register if you are coming to the live service by Saturday night. We know it takes a couple of minutes to do, but it makes life a lot easier for us in terms of planning, as well as logistics on the day.
