

Hi Church,

Well, the daily COVID case numbers are going down, which is good news. Hopefully we will be able to move down to level 1 or 2 next week.

In the meantime we have had some good connections over zoom and other electronic means.

Please be aware that we have a great group of intercessors who are holding the needs of our church in prayer, even during lockdown. So, please let me know if there is anything you want prayer for.

Conversion Therapy Submissions:

Some people have asked me about good resources that will help you make a submission. The best one I found is:

Remember that submissions will close on September 8.

Online Fathers Day Service:

Lot's of people have put in a lot of effort into making this services happen this week. Use the links below to tune in this Sunday at 10am.

Children's Programme:

Joanna does a great job of providing resources for our children. Please view these in the attachments to this email.

God Bless
